OFFICIAL.

NOTICE TO GAS CONSUMERS.

Gas bills for the quarter ending June 1, 1908, having been delivered, this is to notify all customers that the usual discount will be allowed on all bills paid on or before July 1, 1908. After that date no discount will be allowed and delinquents will be required to make early settlement. By order of the Committee on Light. J. B. WALLER, je22 td Clerk of Gas.

To City Taxpayers—Notice.

Collector's Office, June 17, 1908.

Notice is hereby given that the tax bills for 1908 are now in the hands of the Collector. The attention of parties interested is respectfully called to the following extract from the revenue bill of that year:

"Upon all bills paid in full by the 1st day of July, 1908, the Collector of Taxes shall allow a discount of ten per cent, and on all bills paid by the 1st day of September, 1908, he shall allow a discount of five per cent, and on all bills not paid on the 1st day of December, 1908, there shall be assessed and collected a penalty of five per cent upon the amount of said bills, and on all bills remaining unpaid on the 1st day of June, 1909, damages at the rate of six per centum per annum shall be paid."

Taxpayers would do well to call and pay at once in order to avoid the rush and crowd usually present on the last days in which the discount is allowed.

Bring a list to make sure you get bills for all your property, as the Collector will not be responsible or allow the discount after the time fixed by law. P. F. GORMAN, je18tjuly1 Collector of City Taxes.

LOSS OF THE BRAZILIAN CONTRACT.

"Because the labor unions wont let a skilled workman teach his trade to his own son is the reason the United States lost the $50,000,000 contract for ships for the Brazilian navy," said Rear Admiral George W. Melvin, in Philadelphia, yesterday.

"We have the best steel and iron in the world right here. We have the timber, which England must import, but because the labor unions have put their restriction on the number of apprentices skilled labor has become so scarce in the United States that it costs 40 per cent more to build a ship in America than it does in Great Britain or Germany.

"In some cases no apprentices are tolerated save such a pay large sums to labor unions.

"No greater travesty on American freedom exists than this robbing of the young American of his birthright to work at the trade he chooses. Nothing to my mind is so un-American as to deprive a boy of his right to learn a trade, or a man of his right to teach it. Nothing is so dangerous to our manufacturing supremacy.

"To this pernicious practice of limiting and restricting apprenticeship I attribute the loss of this great contract. The labor unions want to raise wages by reducing the number of workmen. They have succeeded, but Samuel Gompers and his allies have constructed a boomerang which has come back and hit labor at a very inopportune time. During this period of financial depression a $50,000,000 contract would have been a great boon to the American mechanics.

"I see a future for this country similar to that of Spain and Italy. There the trade guilds in the towns became so strong and domineering that the nobility could not invest its capital.

"What should the United States do to make sure of the next ship contract from Chile, or Peru, or Argentine? Every State should pass a law prohibiting the restrictions by trade unions of the number of apprentices, and the United States government, should admit all skilled workmen. Then we will become the ship-building country of the world, because we have the steel, the timber the men of brawn, and the men of brains."

For a Sprained Ankle.

As usually treated, a sprained ankle will disable the injured person for a month or more, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the directions with each bottle faithfully, a cure may be effected in many cases in less than one week's time. This liniment is a most remarkable preparation. Try it for a sprain or bruise, or when laid up with chronic or muscular rheumatism, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which it affords. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Co. and Richard Gibson.

THE STATE TICKET.

A dispatch from Richmond says:

There is a lot of gossiping and prophesying about the final outcome of the race for gubernatorial honors in the coming campaign, but there has not been even a murmur concerning some of the of the other fat places to be filled.

While it is believed that Judge Williams, of Wythe county, will again oppose General Anderson for the attorney generalship, the judge has not come forward as yet with a flat statement to that effect. It will be remembered that during the last two campaigns Judge Williams has made futile stabs at the scalp of the general, but they saw fit to send General Anderson back to his job. Hon. James R. Caton, of Alexandria, will be a candidate for lieutenant governor, now held by J. Taylor Ellyson. While Mr. Ellyson has made no public statement to the effect that he would be a candidate to succeed himself, it is believed that he will.

It is believed that the following elective officers will stand to succeed themselves: D. Q. Eggleston, secretary of the commonwealth; A. W. Harman, jr., treasurer; J. D. Eggleston, jr., superintendent of public instruction, and George W. Koiner, commissioner of agriculture.

When you need to take something take it promptly for the stomach, but take something you know is reliable—something like Kodol For Dyspepsia and Indigestion Kodol is pleasant to take, it is reliable and is guaranteed to give relief. It is sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

STABBED TO DEATH.

Charles Jones, aged eighteen, son of Asa Jones, a prominent lumber man, was stabbed to death near Sylva, N. C., Thursday, by Basil Watson, aged twenty-three, son of James Watson. The tragedy was the result of a quarrel about a young woman with whom both were in love. There had been several quarrels between the men over their love affair. Jones was stabbed in the abdomen and disemboweled. He died in fifteen minutes while a physician was dressing his wounds. Watson fled over the State line into the mountains of South Carolina, but a long distance telephone message last night from Webster, N. C., says Watson has surrendered himself to the sheriff there and was in jail. Watson says that Jones made an assault upon him, and that he killed Jones in self-defense.

No Need of Suffering from Rheumatism.

It is a mistake to allow anyone to suffer from rheumatism, as the pain can always be relieved, and in most cases a cure effected by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes sleep and rest possible. Even in cases of long standing this liniment should be used on account of the relief which it affords. Do not be discouraged until you have given it a trial. For sale by W. F. SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 27, 1908.

A TELEGRAM sent out from Richmond last night says:

A persistent but unconfirmed rumor is current in political circles tonight that ex-Governor Andrew Jackson Montague will bolt the democratic party, stump the State for William H. Taft, the republican nominee, this fall, and in the event Taft is elected be given a federal judgeship. The rumor is given credence and being gravely discussed by prominent politicans and public men from every section of the State, who are here in attendance upon the State board of education, which is now in session. The rumor comes from all sections between Bristol and the sea, but seems to be especially persistent in the Tidewater section. An unsuccessful effort was made tonight to communicate with Governor Montague at his home, but he could not be reached.

Governor Montague's friends in this section of the state will refuse to accept this statement. The former governor, from his early days, has been repeatedly honored by his party and his loyalty thereto has never before been questioned. The suggestion that he would change his political views at this late day for a mess of pottage in the shape of a federal judgeship is repugnant to his friends and is of itself a sufficient refutation of the whole story.

IT WILL be remembered that George Midgets, the colored man who was hanged in Alexandria on the 14th of last February, was positive in asserting that he preferred hanging to serving a life term in the penitentiary. Efforts had been made by his counsel to induce the governor to commute Midgets' sentence to life imprisonment. His excellency refused to do this, and when this intelligence was communicated to the condemned man, he exclaimed, "Thank the Lord," and slowly proceeded to roll up a cigarette. A similar case is reported in Washington. President Roosevelt has declined to interfere with the carrying out of the death sentence imposed on Albert Brown, colored, slayer of his brother, Harvey Brown. He is to be hanged on Monday next. The condemned man, when the president's refusal was communicated him, said: "I would rather die than go to the penitentiary for life. The idea of having to remain in prison all my life seems more horrible than death."

TRAMPS often ride on the roofs of passenger trains, where they take the chances of being burned to death by flying cinders, or on trucks under cars where they are compelled to lie on their faces and hold on for their lives for hours. But the latest feat on the part of an itinerant was to steal a ride by submerging himself in the water tank of a locomotive. After riding from Buffalo to Wilkesbarre, Pa., 260 miles, in the tank of a Lehigh Valley passenger locomotive, William Bahmiller, of Mauch Chunk, was arrested yesterday. He had been in the tank more than six hours, up to the neck in water most of the time and having great difficulty, when the train was going fast and swinging around curves, from being drowned. He also had a narrow escape when the fireman refilled the tank, but managed to escape until Wilkesbarre was reached, when the fireman carelessly let the tank overflow, and Bahmiller had to pop out his head to get air.

EXAMINATION of records on file in the clerk's office of the Hustings Court at Richmond confirms a rumor repeated that Mayor McCarthy did not vote in the recent general election, notwithstanding the fact that in the primary he pledged himself to support the party nominee. The mayor, it will be remembered, was defeated for re-election. It was hoped by many people when the rumor was at first circulated that it would prove to be baseless. Mayor McCarthy, it is asserted, was about the polls during the day the primary was held, and there seems to be no answer to the charge made against him of bolting the ticket.

SOLAR eclipses which are partial, like tomorrow's, have little attraction for the professional astronomer. That which he cares most to see, the faintly luminous and widely spreading envelope known at the corona, is visible only when the sun's disk is completely concealed. On the other hand, partial eclipses are not devoid of popular interest. Inasmuch as the one announced for tomorrow occurs at a convenient hour—between 10 o'clock and 1 o'clock—it will probably receive due attention if the weather continues favorable. Persons who stay away from church to observe it can double their contributions a week later.

ON and after August 1, it is announced, the coasting trade among Canadian ports on the Pacific will be restricted to vessels under the British flag. That will exclude some American vessels, but there will be no ground for complaint, since it will be merely the application by Canada of the rule which this country has long maintained.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, June 27.

The navy department has under consideration plans for a long distance test of armor plate, to put at rest the speculation that has been aroused by the recent test made upon the turret of the Florida, which is to be named the Tallahassee when she is again out of commission. The Florida test was made at short range, the powder charge being reduced so that the two shells had a velocity upon impact corresponding to that which would have been attained by a full charge at a distance of 4,000 yards. Officers maintain that the conditions cannot be made similar by reducing the powder charge, and insist that the damage to the turret armor would not have been so great had the shell actually been fired at a 4,000 yard range. It is probable that the long distance test will be made at the Indian Head proving grounds. It will determine the effect of hitting at the long range, whether the shell can pierce the plate, and whether the rotation at that long distance will not change the position of the shell so that it will glance from the armor.

Many naval officers are awaiting with much apprehension the report of the board of rear admirals which will designate those selected for enforced retirement in order to shave down the "humps", caused by the congestion of officers in certain grades. The retiring board will make its report on July 1. According to the present vacancies fourteen officers will be cut off the active list if no applications are made for voluntary retirement. Some applications have been handed in but as they cannot be made public until July 1, none but the members of the board knows how many there are. It is not likely there will be fourteen seeking retirement so that some officers willing or unwilling will have their naval careers ended and there are many minds ill at ease awaiting the fateful decree.

Admiral Capps the chief of the naval bureau of construction, left Washington today for San Francisco from which port he will sail with the fleet on July 7 to inspect Pearl Harbor, Hawaiian islands. He will inspect the harbor and determine in a general way plans for the naval station on which millions are to be expended by the government. Later he will be followed by the chief by the bureau of yards and docks for the same purpose.

Confidential specifications are being issued by the Navy Department for the construction of ten torpedo boat destroyers which are to be added to the fleet. The board of pure food and drug inspection today decided that the government inspection mark shall be placed on all packages of oleomargarine.

Senor Veloz, charge d'affaires of the Venezuelan legation, who is in charge of the business of the legation in Washington has not been withdrawn. Baron Takahira, the Japanese Ambassador called at the state Department today to present the condolences of his government on the death of President Cleveland. Senor Herarte also presented condolences on the part of the government of Guatemala.

COUNT ARRESTED.

Count Wutzthum Von Eckstaedt, now under arrest in San Francisco, and said to be wanted by the German government for his connection with the notorious "Round Table," is said to have recently victimized people of Pittsburg, Pa., to the extent of perhaps $250,000. It is asserted that the count, who was most popular with the ladies, not only borrowed the bank accounts and diamonds of many of them—forgetting always to return them—but that he wooed and won a Miss Selby, of Orange, N. J., who was visiting friends in Pittsburg.

The marriage took place quietly within a week after the count met Miss Selby. After a honeymoon of five days, she was sent to her New Jersey home, and has not been heard of since.

Among those who confess to have been taken in by the count is August Reiber, one of the leading German Americans of Pittsburg. Charles Rosenthal, a very wealthy wine importer, who entertained the count at his house, mourns the loss of much of his wardrobe, diamonds and other things of value.

One story is told of the count's playing billiards at $500 a shot on borrowed money and never losing a shot. He borrowed the first thousand from his host, a very rich Pittsburger, in whose private billiard parlor the game was played. The count, who is a wonderful player, took many thousands of dollars from the guests that evening.

He left, neglecting to return the $1,000 he had borrowed to begin with. The count is said to have promised to marry at least a dozen rich young women of the town, borrowing extensively from each on the plea that his remittance from Germany was delayed.

WANTS THE COLORED VOTE.

Secretary Taft conferred with Booker T. Washington, at the Hotel Manhattan, in New York last night in, regard to the negro vote. Washington told Mr. Taft he believed he would have the support of the negroes. He wants the secretary to speak at at least two negro mass meetings in the course of the campaign.

Washington saw Mr. Taft by appointment after Mr. Taft had returned from a dinner in his honor in the evening by Jacob Schmillap, of Cincinnati, at the St. Regis Hotel. Washington had attended the funeral of Grover Cleveland in the afternoon. Before going up to Mr. Taft's room, he said:

"In the last analysis the negro vote will go to Mr. Taft, because the negroes will realize in the campaign that they have nothing to expect from the democratic party. With the democratic convention muade up in part of southern representatives of the Tillman-Vardaman type, it will be impossible for the negro to get anything. If he is to get anything he will have to look to the republican party, and he will naturally go for the republican candidate."

Mr. R. Lindsey Gordon, who has been quite ill since his recent congressional canvass in this district, is reported to have greatly improved.

He carries life insurance policies aggregating $55,000.

William J. Bryan rejected the suggestion of David R. Francis, of St. Louis, as a possible vice presidential nominee or as a possible manager of the democratic presidential campaign, claiming that he is connected with the Standard Oil Company.

The wheat harvest is nearing its end, and, from all that is learned, the crop is a good one in this section of the state, the heads being well filled with a fully matured and choice quality of grain.

The accused man is fifty-five years of age and a lifelong cripple. He has a wife and three small children.

JUMPED IN FRONT OF TRAINS.

Just after a man had been snatched from death in front of an approaching train in the Ninety-sixth street station of the subway in New York, yesterday, afternoon, a young woman deliberately jumped in front of a train. Although the wheels did not pass over her, she was cut and crushed. At the hospital the doctors say there is litte hope for her.

William Cox, 42 years old, suddenly staggered and fell off the platform. His body struck the third rail. Men and women raised a cry of alarm as a train was seen to be drawing near and the subway employees jumped to the track and lifted Cox to the platform. He was cut and bruished and was conveyed to a hospital.

The young girl got off a Lenox avenue local train. As an express train drew in she deliberately jumped to the tracks. The front car struck her, hurling the body aside. When she was taken out it was found that the wheels had not touched her. Her body had been jammed in between a truck and the platform. She was unconscious when lifted out.

THE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.

The committee on convention arrangements of the democratic national committee has arrived at Denver ready for the meeting today when the temporary chairman of the convention is to be selected.

The committeemen present are Chairman Thomas Taggart, Roger C. Sullivan, James C. Dahlman, Norman E. Mack, O. M. Johnson and John E. Osborne. John L. McGraw, Clark Howell. Uri Woodson, secretary of the national committee, and Edwin Sefton, assistant secretary, are also on the ground.

The general impression is that Theodore E. Bell, of California, is to be temporary chairman and Representative Clayton, of Alabama, permanent chairman of the convention. Mr. Bell was the democratic candidate for governor of California in 1906, and was defeated because William R. Hearst put an Independence League candidate in the field.

DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpicide on Account of its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicide speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicide effectively cures dandruff, and it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive.

Sold by Ernest L. Allen & Co., agents. Two sizes 50c and $1.00. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. 58

BURIAL OF MR. CLEVELAND.

Grover Cleveland's remains were buried yesterday evening in the Cleveland plot in Princeton Cemetery. At 5 o'clock a distinguished company silently watched as the body was lowered into the grave. Then the simple burial service of the Presbyterian Church was read and before the last of the carriages in the cortege had driven up to the path leading to the burial place, the benediction had been pronounced and the members of the family, President Roosevelt and others who had gathered about the grave, were leaving the cemetery. Many of the personal friends of the dead statesman lingered about the spot which was to mark his last resting place, and each in turn was permitted to cast a shovelful of earth into the grave.

Agreeable to the wishes of Mrs. Cleveland the services both at the house and at the cemetery were of the simplest character. An invocation, scriptural reading, a brief prayer and the reading of a William Wordsworth poem, "Character of the Happy Warrior," constituted the services at the house, while the reading of the burial service at the grave was brief and impressive.

Although the funeral was of a strictly private nature, those in attendance numbered many distinguished citizens, including President Roosevelt, Governor Fort, of New Jersey; Governor Hughes, of New York; Gov. Hoke Smith, of Georgia; former members of President Cleveland's Cabinet officials of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, members of the Princeton University faculty and friends and neighbors.

Mr. Cleveland was buried as a private citizen rather than as the former chief executive of the nation. There was nothing that savored of the official, and the military element was injected solely as a measure of precaution in protecting President Roosevelt.

The president arrived at 4:38 p. m., and was met at the station by Governor Fort. The president, Governor Fort and Secretary Loeb were driven at once to Westland. Upon his arrival at the house the president went to Mrs. Cleveland offering his sympathy and expressing keen regret at Mr. Cleveland's death.

The president then returned to the reception room, where the body had been removed in the afternoon from the room on the second floor, in which Mr. Cleveland died.

A few minutes later the four clergymen who officiated came down the stairs to the hall leading to the reception room followed by Mrs. Cleveland and the children, Esther and Richard. As they appeared upon the landing, accompanied by Dr. Joseph D. Bryant, the whole company rose and remained standing throughout the services.

Just before the services were begun Mrs. Cleveland sent down word that she did not want a single newspaper man in the house. She had previously authorized Prof. Howard McLenahan, of Princeton University, in charge of the funeral arrangements, to issue tickets of admission to the funeral to four reporters to represent all the newspapers of the country through the various press connections, and seats had been allotted to them.

Just before the services Prof. Lenahan announced to them and to the correspondents who, as usual, had accompanied President Roosevelt and who were waiting with them, that Mrs. Cleveland had changed her mind and wished none of them in the home during the services.

The services began with an invocation by Rev. Sylvester M. Beach, of the First Presbyterian Church, of Princeton, which was followed by scriptural reading by Rev. Maitland V. Bartlett, of the West Farms Presbyterian Church, of New York, a former pastor of Mr. Cleveland, who read from the fourteenth chapter of the Book of John and a number of passages from the fourth and twenty-second chapters of the Thessalonians.

Dr. Henry Van Dyke said that, "according to the request of one whose slightest wish at this moment we all respect, there will be no address or sermon, but there was a poem, written more than a hundred years ago by William Wordsworth, which is expressive of his character."

He then read the poem "Character of the Happy Warrior."

This was followed by readings from the Presbyterian Book of Common Worship, the services at the home concluding with a prayer.

The services were concluded at 5:30 and five minutes later the casket had been tenderly carried to the hearse and the procession started on its way to the cemetery.

There Mrs. Cleveland stood with Esther and Richard and Dr. Bryant as the coffin was slowly lowered into the grave. Rev. William R. Richards, of the Brick Presbyterian Church of New York, had started to read the committal service even before President Roosevelt and others had reached the scene. The president stood just back of Mrs. Cleveland as the impressive final words were spoken. The services lasted less than five minutes.

The ceremonies over, President Roosevelt with Secretary Loeb and several secret service men who attended him, were driven to the railroad station, where he entered his private car and remained until the train pulled out at 6:20 o'clock when he appeared on the rear platform and acknowledged the cheers and goodbys of the crowd at the station.

Mrs. Cleveland and the immediate members of the family returned to Westland, while the majority of the guests went to the Princeton Inn, where light refreshments were served, with Mrs. A. D. Russell, of Princeton, as hostess.

All the military posts of the United States were firing a salute of 45 guns at sunset. Throughout the day, naval and governmental vessels, in all parts of the world, and the military stations of the army in the United States and foreign possessions fired a salute every thirty minutes.

A number of state capitals and commercial exchanges in large cities were closed. Memorial services were held and business was suspended in several communities and the bells were tolled in a number of cities.

Scores visited the cemetery today where former President Cleveland was buried yesterday afternoon. Orchids, carnations, roses and evergreens cover the grave while on the trees at its head hang floral pieces of the most costly description.

The democrats of Florida have nominated Duncan U. Fletcher for a Senator, and A. W. Gilchrist for governor.

Today's Telegraphic News.

The Report Concerning Ex-Governor Montague.

[Special dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, June 27.—Concerning a telegram from Richmond published in today's Washington Herald saying that ex-Governor Montague would bolt the democratic party and support Taft, his brother, H. Lynch Montague, today expressed surprise at the publication. He would neither confirm nor deny the report. However, ex-Governor Montague to whom the reporter was referred is out of the city. The report is denied by many.

The Approaching Convention.

[By John E. Nevins, staff correspondent of the U. P.]

Denver, June 27.—A bad throat is all that has kept United States Senator Jos. Bailey, of Texas, from sounding the keynote of the democrat campaign of 1908. It was learned today he was practically the unanimous choice of the subcommittee on arrangements for temporary chairman of the national convention. Bailey was consulted on the subject, but he replied that his throat was in such condition as would prevent his acceptance of the honor.

It is understood that Senator Bailey was Bryan's choice for the position, and that the Nebraskan still hopes that the Texan can be made a real factor in the convention. The proposition now is to make Bailey chairman of the committee on resolutions.

The subcommittee on arrangements will meet late this afternoon to select the various temporary officers. It was generally predicted today that former Congressman Theodore E. Bell, of California, will be chosen to preside over the convention on the opening day.

Sentiment among the subcommittee members here is favorable to the retention of Thomas Taggart, of Indiana, as chairman of the new national committee. Unless Bryan himself vetoes the proposition, Taggart will likely succeed himself.

Workmen are today finishing the interior of Denver's magnificent new $600,000 auditorium. Three huge pictures of Washington, Jefferson and Jackson have been placed upon the walls, and it is hinted that, concealed in the draperies above the stage is a likeness of Bryan which will be unfurled at the psychological moment.

Dallas, Texas, June 27.—Senator Bailey will not be able to attend the democrat convention at Denver despite the hot fight he won for delegates at large. The following telegram received by J. C. McNealus indicates recent talk that he would be chairman of the resolution committee is baseless:

"I sat up a while yesterday and am up again today. I think I have safely passed all danger, but my doctor says I am too weak to think of attending the Denver convention."

Designs in Macedonia.

London, June 27.—That England plans an end of Turkish rule in Macedonia, with its long record of murder and outrage, is the information dropped by a member of the foreign office. While the information is in the nature of a "leak," its reliability cannot be questioned.

In the recent meeting between King Edward and Emperor Nicholas at Reval, the subject was discussed, and it was agreed that an international understanding with regard to Macedonia similar to the Algeciras agreement in respect to Morocco was imperative.

The United States will be invited to join with other powers, on the initiative of England and Russia, for an early initial conference on the Macedonian question.

It is certain that Germany will oppose the proposed plan. The German empire is none to friendly too England and Russia, owing to her belief that the recent meeting between the rulers of these nations has the further isolation of Germany as one of its objects.

Previous to the meeting at Reval, both King Edward and Emperor Nicholas gave it out that the only matter of State that would be considered would be the Macedonia situation. The new developments indicate that this subject was discussed, though whether other political situations were raised is not known.

Berlin, June 27.—Information received here shows that Turkey will resist with all her might the plan of England and Russia to wrest control of Macedonia from her. Turkey believes that France will join actively in support of the Anglo-Russian scheme, and she is fearful that the influence of these three will be powerful enough to win.

As a check to the designs of England and Russia, an article published in the Porte proposes a system of reforms in Macedonia and suppression of the warring bands that have created so much disorder and distress in that country. To this end Gen. Ibrahim Pacha has been dispatched to take control of the Macedonian army corps.

Fighting in Mexico.

San Antonio, Texas, June 27.—Although it is generally regarded as certain that the arrest of alleged Mexican conspirators at El Paso and Nueva Laredo, Case Grande, has nipped in the bud plans for a more or less general uprising throughout northern Mexico, today's dispatches indicate that the trouble, started through attacks on Viesca and Las Vacas, is far from being over.

Advices from Del Rio, just across the river from Las Vacas, say firing continued there throughout the night and it is feared the revolutionists, or bandits reinforced have turned to attack the town. Communication is cut off, and it is impossible to get details.

That the fighting about Las Vacas yesterday was much more severe than at first reported now also seems apparent. It is stated at least 100 men were killed being about equally divided.

Banks, shops and houses were robbed, and the jail was emptied by the invaders. Many of the prisoners joined the bandits.

Evidence has been secured, it is stated, showing a general uprising was planned for July 1, beginning at Casas Grandes. The plot was discovered and it is supposed that this led the revolutionists to a premature attack on towns in the vicinity.

A beautiful wedding was celebrated Saturday evening last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton R. Richer, of Franklin Furnace, N. J., when their sister, Miss Bessie Cloud Ferguson, a daughter of the late Rev. Sydnor G. Ferguson, of Leesburg, became the bride of Mr. Frank H. Carr, of Flint Hill.

Railroad Accidents.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 27.—A reward of $500 was today offered by H. O. Dunkle, general superintendent of the Erie, for the apprehension of persons he declares guilty of causing the wreck at Mantua, Ohio, last night Erie flyer No. 19, running 50 miles an hour, was thrown down a three-foot embankment. Engineer Charles S. Symonds was killed and six persons were injured. Dunkle's investigation has satisfied him the wreck resulted from a misplaced rail or an obstruction on the track. The engine pounded over the rails 200 feet and then plunged down the embankment. The combination baggage coach, and smoker followed. The last car, a Pullman coach, filled with passengers, stopped at the edge. Engineer Symonds remained at his post while the train took the wild flight and was crushed to death.

Mahanoy City, Pa., June 27.—Engineer Rauph, of Pottsville, Pa., was killed and every one of its fifty passengers were injured when a Pennsylvania passenger train jumped the rails at Delano, four miles from here today. The train which was made up of an engine, baggage car and two day coaches almost went over a fifty foot embankment.

The Thaw Case.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 27.—A. Russelll Peabody, counsel for Harry K Thaw, today obtained a new writ of habeas corpus for Thaw, returnable at White Plains at 10:30 Monday morning. The new writ demands an examination of the jury. The writ was signed by Justice Mills at Troy.

Justice Morschauser this morning signed the necessary papers remanding Thaw back to Matteawan, but the new writ will act as a stay and Thaw will remain in jail here. He will be taken to White Plains Monday morning.

The new point raised is that the petition holds that Thaw after his acquittal could not lawfully be restrained of his liberty as an insane person without an injunction in lunacy in which he would be entitled to have the issue raised of his sanity determined by jury.

"I can convince any jury that I am sane," said Thaw today. "Mr. Morschauser will make every effort to obtain a trial of my case by jury and I am perfectly satisfied that a body of carefully selected jurymen will pronounce me sane and give me my freedom."

Will Not Change Religion.

London, June 27.—Prince Helie de Sagan denied today that he will adopt the Protestant religion before his marriage to Mme. Anna Gould. "It will not be necessary for me to change my religion," he said today, "Madame Gould and I will return to France after our wedding, and I certainly will feel more comfortable in my native country if I retain my old faith."

The tentative date of the wedding is July 7. There will be both a civil and a church ceremony.

Nothing further is known of the intentions of the family of George Gould regarding the wedding. The family is still in France. The fact that Mme Anna Gould and the prince left Paris previous to their arrival there leads to the belief that the latter are not to be present.

Killed by His Servant?

Paris, June 27.—If the story of M. Raingo, nephew of Auguste Remy, the Paris banker who was slain in his house June 6, is to be believed, the murder was of a sort that would delight the authors of weird crime stories. Raingo says that the servant Renard, who was arrested yesterday and charged with complicity in the killing, is the guilty man. He says Renard had gained a complete mastery over his uncle. Twitted by his wife for allowing a servant to rule him in such a manner, Remy finally rebelled and announced to his wife that he would discharge Renard. The latter heard the threat. The next morning Remy's body was found, with a dozen gaping wounds. Raingo says Renard slipped from his room in the night and attacked his uncle.

Women And Children Working For Prohibition.

Memphis, Tenn., June 27.—Five thousand women and children paraded the streets of Memphis today, carrying banners and singing prohibition songs. When the parade disbanded the women went to the polls where a democratic primary is being held and served coffee and sandwiches to the voters. Adjoining many polling places "prayer meeting" booths were established and all day services was held at each. Similar scenes were enacted in Nashville and Chattanooga, the only other cities of Tennessee where saloons are operated. The overshadowing race is that between Gov. M. H. Patterson and ex-Senator E. W. Carmack for the nomination for governor. Senator Carmack's platform is state-wide prohibition.

Woman in a Box.

Fitchburg, Mass., June 17.—After living for a year shut up in a room where she refused to admit a breath of fresh air, Mrs. Wm. Tryon, middle-aged and wealthy, is now on her way to Salisbury, N. C., encased in a huge box with a glass front. For several months she has been suffering from bronchitis and nervous troubles, and she believes that the slightest air aggravates her condition. She is going to the South to find a warmer climate. Yesterday afternoon she entered the box, the doors were closed and she was started south in a baggage car.

Scotch Mansion Burned.

Glasgow, June 27.—The mansion of Rev. Sholto Douglas, brother of Lord Blythswood, near Coalbridge, one of the oldest and most historical baronial houses in Scotland, was burned today. The loss is complete, including the vast library which contained original manuscripts of Scott, Carlisle, Knox and other noted writers of the past. The loss from a historical standpoint is incalculable. The house and furnishings were valued at $250,000.

Will Issue Another Challenge.

Dublin, June 27.—It was reported today on what is considered excellent authority that Thomas Lipton would shortly issue a fresh challenge for the America's cup with a new boat built in conformity with the new American rules. The Shamrock IV with which Lipton has been racing does not conform to these rules, and as it is not considered a remarkably fast boat, Sir Thomas is only too glad to replace it with a new Shamrock IV.

Shah Complies With Demand.

Teheran, June 27.—Fearing to become involved in a dispute with England, the shah complied with the demand of the British legation that he remove his soldiers beyond the legation gates.

The shah is taking no chances on another uprising of the people of the capital, and though a semblance of order has been restored and business resumed, his soldiers still guard the city and the least show of opposition is summarily dealt with.

Prince Meid-el-Dowleh is acting as governor general of the city. Melik Iran, mother of Zahir-es-Sultan, who was unmercifully whipped by the shah's soldiers at Baghedad, is reported to have committed suicide through grief. Her house was also razed by the soldiers.

Following the withdrawal of soldiers from the British legation, the shah issued a general proclamation of amnesty. It is feared that under a guise of legal action he will begin the punishment of his enemies.

A decree dissolving parliament and ordering new parliamentary elections has been promised for Sunday.

The 'Varsity Race.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y, June 27.—The 'varsity race is to be rowed this afternoon at 5 o'clock. Five crews, representing Columbia, Cornell, Pennsylvania, Syracuse and Wisconsin, will cut loose from their stake boats and start on the four-mile dash down the river to the finish line, a mile below the suspension bridge. All efforts to force a favorite to the front failed and it is evident that the race will start with Columbia, Syracuse and Pennsylvania equal choices. Wisconsin will have to show something better than she has exhibited in the practice sprints to be regarded as a factor in the race. Cornell, as usual, is the mystery in the race.

The Lafayette Statue.

Paris, June 27.—Artistic Paris is today singing the praises of Sculptor Paul Bartlett, the American, whose statue of Gen. Lafayette has just been placed on its pedestal in the Place du Louvre. A few days ago Bartlett threatened to delay the raising of the statue on account of large payments still due him for his work. He instructed his lawyers to bring suit against the statue commission, but in response to the demand of many of his friends has permitted the statue to be raised on the date set. The statue cost $130,000, of which $60,000 was raised by the school children of America.

Athletes Leave for London.

New York, June 27.—Eighty American athletes, among them Reetor, the sprinter, of Virginia, the pick of the brawn and skill of the United States, sailed from New York on the liner Philadelphia, today, to compete against the world in the Olympic games in London. Ten thousand people flocked to the American line pier to see them off. King Edward will dedicate the $300,000 stadium where 70,000 spectators will see the competitions. The Marathon race will start in the palace grounds at Windsor only the last 600 yards being run in the stadium track.

New York Stock Market.

New York, June 27.—The market continued strong all through the first hour. Gains were generally limited to fractions. Some stocks yielded slightly under profit taking sales, but the declines were not important. New York Central & Atchison advanced 3-4 and Steel preferred 1-2. Governments unchanged; other bonds slightly higher.

The close of the market was marked by a sagging off in the final dealings.

Plunged to Her Death.

New York, June 27.—Having plunged to her death in her sleep, the body of Mildred Makepeace, 7 years old was found by her mother terribly crushed at the foot of the airshaft at their home, No. 15 Manhattan avenue, early today. The child had fallen five stories from her bed room window some time during the night.

The last issue of the Woman's Home Companion which has been received from its publishers in New York, is the Fourth of July number and contains many bright stories fit for mid-summer reading. Edward Everett Hale makes a plea for Americans to travel in America, and Mrs. Sangster writes on the American woman and the simple life. "Household and Fashions" and the long list of "Special Departments" will interest many women of many tastes. "Younger readers" are not forgotten either in this excellent number.

Everybody's Magazine for July, which has been received from its publishers in New York, is a comprehensive and charming issue. Lincoln Steffens contributes the leading article: "Bryan-Johnson on what the matter is in America and what to do about it." A paper by Dr. Wm. Hanna Thomson tells of strange discoveries in medicine and biology. "The story of an ivory hunter," and "Tenements of Trinity Church" are of much interest. Six short stories give good fiction and the verse, reviews, etc., are excellent.

FELL FROM A TRAIN.

Late yesterday evening a report was circulated that Mayor F. J. Paff had fallen from an electric train on Cameron street and received serious injuries. The rumor had been sent by telephone to the station house and from that point had been circulated to other sections of the city. Upon inquiry at the mayor's residence it was learned that he had not been the victim of an accident. An old and well-known Alexandrian, however, had fallen while stepping from an electric train at Cameron and Payne streets. Mr. John Lawler, a carpenter, residing at 535 south Fairfax street, was the victim. Shortly after 5 o'clock he fell from a moving train and was painfully injured. He was conveyed to the residence of his son, Mr. Edward F. Lawler, 111 north Payne street. Dr. Wm. M. Smith was summoned, and on examination ascertained that Mr. Lawler had broken his collar bone and had received several contusions on the head and face and was badly bruised about the body. His injuries are not regarded as serious.

WOMEN IN A FIGHT.

Ethel Brown, Hazel Daw, Effie Hughes and Ray Moore were arrested last night by Officers Young, Garvey, Rawlett and Arrington charged with engaging in a general fight in a house on north Lee street. Ray Moore left collateral for her appearance this morning, but a return of non est inventus was entered in her case when it was called in the Police Court. Ethel Brown had a cut head, and asserted that she had been struck with a beer bottle, wielded by one of the women. It was stated, however, that her injury was caused by falling on broken glasses. It was also asserted that the woman was armed with a hatpin which was shown in court The cause of the fight could not be ascertained, although it developed that the four women in company with two young Alexandrians had left one house and entered another in which the "mix-up" occurred. Scratching and hairpulling seemed to have been in evidence. The three women were fined $10 each.

UNDUE EXCITEMENT.

Between the hours of 9 and 10 o'clock last night one who happened in the neighborhood of King and Royal streets would have thought that either a murder had been committed or a conflagration out of the ordinary was taking place, judging from the number of people gathered there. Representatives of the police department, drug clerks, barkeepers, bank watchmen, and, in fact, those from a dry goods salesman and auctioneer to a bootblack were on hand to witness what was supposed to be a fire, all of which was caused by the watchmen at the Alexandria National Bank burning some waste paper in the furnance of that institution. The chief engineer, Geo. W. Pettey, went through the building and after satisfying the assemblage that there was no damage the crowd dispersed.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Mrs. Mary Candler, wife of Warden William E. Candler, handsomely entertained her many friends last night at her home on north St. Asaph street. More than fifty of her friends assembled to partake of a bountiful repast, and, as a conclusion to the evenings entertainment, two barrels of select Norfolk crabs were partaken of. It was after midnight before the guests departed. The Alexandria Mandolin Club furnished music during the evening. Many friends attended from Washington.

A great many people visited the motion pictures at the Alexandria Amusement Company's hall last night and pronounced the show excellent. Tonight the new reel to be presented is extra funny and very interesting. The charming solos of Miss Fisher is alone worth the price of admission.

NO CUT IN WAGES.

The Southern Railway Company has announced that the resumption of negotiations looking to a reduction in wages of employes of the Southern Railway outside of Washington has been postponed from July 1 until October 1 next. The 10 per cent. reduction in salaries of officers and employes of the road in the offices in Washington will cease to be applied after July 1 next. Reduction, however, will continue as to the salaries of the president and vice-president of of the road.

The negotiations were heretofore suspended from April 1 until July 1, and the negotiations involve the Southern and affiliated lines. President Finley, of the Southern Railway Company, yesterday made the following statement: "In view of the demonstrated greater efficiency of labor and its resulting benefits to the companies, and in the hope and with some expectation that present business conditions may show an improvement, an understanding being reached through Martin A. Knapp and Charles P. Neill, the mediators under the Erdmann act, with all classes of employes that were parties to the settlement of April 1, 1908, to the effect that negotiations temporarily surpended as of April 1, 1908, shall be further postponed until October 1 next, at which time such negotiations may be resumed at the option of the companies through the mediators under the Erdmann act."

MASONIC NOTES.

At the meeting last Thursday night of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons Past Master L. Ruben presented the lodge with 25 colonial notes. They had been printed in Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, Pennsylvania and other places. One of the notes, which had been issued in Pennsylvania, was printed by Benjamin Franklin. The notes will be placed among the lodge relics.

At a meeting last night of the temple building committee of Alexandria-Washington Lodge it was decided to hold a bazar in the fall.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Ethel Brown, Hazel Daw and Effie Hughes, charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, were fined $10 each. Ray Moore, charged with similar offenses, forfeited her collateral by failing to appear.

Arthur Mankin, charged with being drunk in the street, was fined $5.

Robert Holland, charged with a similar offense, was fined $5.

CHANGE IN SCHEDULE.

Commencing today steamers of the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railway Company will make their three weekly trips between Baltimore, river landings, Alexandria and Washington as follows: Leave Baltimore at 5 p. m. every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday. Leave Washington at 4 p. m. and Alexandria at 4:30 p. m. every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.

WILL SUSPEND ACTION.

The United States attorney for the District of Columbia has been directed to suspend further action with regard to the injunction proceedings against the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company for operating an overhead trolley north of Highway Bridge in violation of law, and it is probable nothing will be done in the matter until Congress convenes.

CRABS IN HUNTING CREEK.

Lots yesterday evening while some ladies and gentlemen of this city were standing on Hunting creek bridge enjoying the cooling breeze they were surprised at seeing crabs swimming in the water under them. About eight or ten of the crustaceans appeared. During prolonged dry spells of weather crabs have occasionally been seen at and near Jones's Point.

FUNERAL.

The remains of John W. Cooper, who died at the Braddock House Thursday night were forwarded to Washington, and the funeral took place from A. G. Frey's undertaking establishment, 1830 Fourteenth street, northwest, this afternoon. Pentalpha Lodge, No. 82, F. A. A. M., of which the deceased had been a member, attended the funeral in a body.

THE SABBATH QUESTION.

"Does Alexandria want a Sabbath Rest?" will be the subject of Rev. Joseph R. Sevier's discourse in the Second Presbyterian church tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. The widespread interest in this question and its bearing on the physical, moral and mental welfare of the city, it is claimed, demands for it the serious consideration of all.

DEATH OF MRS. MILBURN.

Mrs. Virginia Milburn died at an early hour Friday morning at Dr. Frye's sanitarium in Washington, where she had recently undergone an operation. The deceased was the widow of J. Parker Milburn, formerly of this city, and who for a number of years was a well-known druggist here.

Flavoring Tobacco.

Nearly all tobaccos are doctored in various ways in order to suit the tastes of different consumers. Each manufacturer—even in Havana—has his own secret methods, handed down from father to son, which are regarded as perfectly legitimate and necessary in the preparation of the soothing weed. Saltpeter is added to the tobacco to make it burn well, licorice, honey, molasses and maple sugar to give sweetness to it for the special benefit of chewers and rum to make it keep well and preserve its properties. Nearly every plant which will afford a perfume is used in the preparation of what are known as "fancy" tobaccos. But it is not true, as some suppose, that opium and deleterious drugs are employed, save in a few brands of imported Turkish and Egyptian cigarettes. Among the flavors used are coffee, tea, valerian, lemon, orange, geranium, sassafras, thyme, anise, mint and cinnamon. Gum and glycerin are occasionally employed to bind the tobacco particles so that they shall not crumble into dust. The various ingredients are made into a kind of sauce, into which the tobacco leaves are dipped or with which they are sprinkled.—London Answers.

The Proper Adjective.

At the close of a revival service in Philadelphia the minister of the church went down the aisle, according to his custom, to greet the strangers in the congregation. "I don't think you are a member of our church," said he to one as he warmly shook his hand. "No, sir," replied the stranger. "Well, you will not think me unduly curious if I ask to what denomination you belong?" asked the minister. "I suppose," responded the other, "I'm really what you might call a submerged Presbyterian." "A submerged Presbyterian?" exclaimed the minister. "I should be glad if you would explain." "Well, I was brought up a Presbyterian, my wife is a Methodist, my eldest daughter is a Baptist, my son is the organist at a Unitarian church, my second daughter sings in an Episcopal choir, and my youngest goes to a Congregational Sunday school." "But," said the minister, aghast, "you contribute doubtless to some church?" "Yes; I contribute to all of them," was the answer. "That's what submerges me."

Crows and Strings.

It was proved centuries ago that a crow can count up to three and no more. I met a farmer once who said that his corn crop had not failed in twenty years owing to his habit of stringing his field. He explained: "No crow will enter an angle formed by two strings stretched on poles. I illustrated this to some friends several years ago by sowing a small field in corn for fodder, protecting it by a zigzag string running from one end to the other. Within the angles formed by the string not a blade of the young crop was touched, but close without them, at each end, the whole crop was demolished. A crow is a very wise fool, and this is an effective and cheap way of circumventing him."—New York Press.

Sign Language on the Curb.

Any one would imagine all the curb brokers in Broad street were mutes. They use the sign language down there now to convey quotations and sales to their office boys and clerks who sit in the windows of the offices to catch the quotations. As a matter of fact, some of the brokers use the deaf and dumb alphabet; others use a distinct signaling code of their own, known only to the one single house and its representative. Even this, however, has to be changed now and then. The brokers possess a nimble wit, and they soon learn the secret signs of their competitors.—New York Cor. Pittsburg Dispatch.

The Safest Way.

"My friends dragged me into this wretched affair," shiveringly said the first duelist to his adversary as the seconds approached with the deadly weapons. "I never pulled the trigger of a pistol in my life, so if I hit you it will be an accident."

"Nor is this awful duel to my liking," whined the challenger, white to the gills. "Like you, a pistol is a strange article to my hands, and if I shoot you it will be with a stray shot."

"Then, for heaven's sake," exclaimed the first duelist, with a ray of hope, "let's aim carefully at each other or one of us may get hit!"—Kansas City Newsbook.

Selwyn's Curious Taste.

George Selwyn had a strange but not uncommon passion for seeing dead bodies, especially those of his friends. He would go any distance to gratify this pursuit. Lord Holland was laid up very ill at Holland House shortly before his death. George Selwyn sent to ask how he was and whether he would like to see him. Lord Holland answered: "Oh, by all means! If I'm alive tomorrow I shall be delighted to see George, and I know that if I am dead he will be delighted to see me!"

Went a Shade Better.

"You—you are temperamentally impossible," roared the first angry man.

"And you," replied the second, getting red in the face, "are temperamentally inconceivable."—Philadelphia Ledger.

And Expensive.

"Surely she must have some favorite flower?"

"No; I don't think so. Anything will please her—that is, anything that's out of season."—Kansas City Journal.

A Trying Moment.

Professor Leopold Schroetter was called to see the Crown Prince Frederick in 1887 before Sir Morrell Mackenzie had reached San Remo. The prince, evidently suspecting the worst, turned to Schroetter after the examination and said, "I request the truth as to my ailment." Schroetter hesitated and made an effort to direct the conversation in another direction, but Frederick insisted. "I am a soldier," he said, "and can look death in the eye. I ask you now plainly, to the point, Is my complaint cancer?" Schroetter could hardly contain himself, and years after the scene when he recalled it he spoke of it as the most painful in his life. He conducted the crown prince to a chair and asked him to be seated. Then he said, "Your Imperial highness, you are suffering from a serious complaint, and it is possible that it may develop into carcinoma, but that cannot be determined positively at this moment." Frederick became deathly pale, but never for a moment lost his self control and smiled grimly when he thanked the physician for his honesty.

Our family were all born and raised in Iowa, and have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy (made at Des Moines) for years. We know how good it is from long experience in the use of it. In fact, when in El Paso, Texas, the writer's life was saved by the prompt use of this remedy. We are now engaged in the mercantile business at Narcoossee, Fla., and have introduced the remedy here. It has proven very successful and is constantly growing in favor.—ENNIS BROS.
